

Food Lovers' Guide to Pittsburgh

The indispensable handbook to Pittsburgh's gastronomic delights

Globe Pequot Press is proud to announce the September 4, 2012 release of Food Lovers' Guide to Pittsburgh (978-0-7627-8117-1, paperback, $14.95) by Sarah Sudar, Julia Gongaware, Amanda McFadden and Laura Zorch.

The ultimate guide to Pittsburgh's food scene provides the inside scoop on the best places to find, enjoy, and celebrate local culinary offerings. Written for residents and visitors alike to find producers and purveyors of tasty local specialties, as well as a rich array of other, indispensable food-related information including: food festivals and culinary events, specialty food shops, farmers' markets and farm stands, trendy restaurants and time-tested iconic landmarks, and recipes using local ingredients and traditions.

Inside you'll find:

- Favorite restaurants and landmark eateries
- Food Festivals and Culinary events
- Recipes using local ingredients and traditions
- Farmers' markets and Farmers stands
- Local food lore and Kitchen Wisdom
- The State's best brewers, brewpubs, and wineries

With delectable recipes from the renowned kitchens to the area's iconic eateries, diners, and elegant dining rooms, Food Lovers' Guide to Pittsburgh is the ultimate resource for food lovers to use and savor.

Sarah Sudar, Julia Gongaware, Amanda McFadden, and Laura Zorch are the food-loving ladies of eatPGH.com. With their forks and their keyboards, the gals have explored the best bites in the 'Burgh for the past three years. You can find them flagging down a food truck on Penn Ave, brunching in Lawrenceville, and road tripping to the burbs for burgers, enjoying every minute of the ride. Check them out at eatpgh.com

Places local to Washington featured in the book are Juniper Grill and Sarris Candies.

Main St. Cafe' in Claysville

There is a new restaurant that has opened in Claysville called The Main Street Cafe. The food is all home cooked and is very reasonably priced. If you want a good home cooked meal come and visit. It is in the Hensel Home and is owned by their granddaughter, Terri Yetter, whose grandparents were Willard & Edith Hensel. They had the dry cleaning business in Claysville for many, many years. They are open Monday thru Friday from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.
